5th Sunday in Ordinary Time – Easter 2010

Triduum Catholics

In many ways the entire message of Christianity can be summed up in one word—"Triduum." Everything important to know is contained in the events of these three days. To truly be disciples, we must be "Triduum Catholics."

Holy Thursday's first lesson: We are servants. We kneel in humility and wash another's feet, especially the marginalized or cast out. We love as God loved us.

Holy Thursday's second lesson: We remember Jesus by gathering as community to recall who we are, to give thanks and praise to God and to be fed by the very body and blood of Jesus so we can go out to bring the Good News to the world.

Good Friday's first lesson: Faithfully following God's will does not mean an easy life. We will suffer deeply; we may be betrayed; we may be humiliated; we may be abandoned by people we thought we could trust, and we may even feel abandoned by God. Ultimately, all of us will die. The cross is ever before us.

Good Friday's second lesson: No sin is too great for God to forgive, and we must forgive in response. We are not always called to reconcile—to repair and rebuild a relationship with the offender. But just as Jesus forgave his murderers and torturers, just as he forgave the thief hanging beside him, we are called to forgive.

Easter's first lesson: No matter how deep the tomb or how black the night, if we walk through it with God, somehow resurrection will come. We have hope, because God will always have the final word and that word will be life, not death.

Easter's second lesson: God works in unexpected ways, coming to us in gardens and through locked doors. Be open, and be amazed at the wonderful workings of God.

Easter's third lesson: Eternal life is ours. Death is not the end; it is a birth to a new existence of joy and peace in union with God.

Keep the Triduum lessons alive and active all through the year. They are the essence of our faith, the core of Christianity itself.

Where Is The Alleluia?

“Alleluia” means “Praise Yahweh!” It is a command and a statement of faith we make in hymns and acclamations throughout our liturgy—but not during Lent! The Alleluia is gone from Ash Wednesday through the Easter Vigil. We fast from this joyful expression of praise during Lent just as we fast from some favorite food. The absence of the Alleluia at liturgy, which dates from the fifth century, is just another reminder of the solemnity of Lent. Lent is a time for us to face our sinfulness. To help remind us of the soberness of Lent, the Church simply removes “Alleluia” from our vocabulary.

In the Middle Ages people actually “buried” the Alleluia. They wrote the word on a plaque or even on a figure, put the word in a box and buried it—to be resurrected at Easter. Children probably really enjoyed this custom and it certainly served to bring home the fact that “Alleluia” was missing.
